

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

Leader: Let us pray.

All: O God of Community, we thank you for those among us who have been called by you to minister to the children, adolescents, and adults within our church family. We lift our prayers of gratitude for the significant roles that our Sunday school teachers, confirmation leaders, chorister instructors, and Bible study guides play in the spiritual nurture and faith formation of our congregation.

On this day of worship, O God, we also celebrate the graduates in our lives. We pray that you would inspire each one of them as they step into the future with faith, courage, and a heart for justice. May they remain grounded in your love and always be guided by your light. It is in your name that we pray, Amen.

CHILDREN'S TIME

Melissa Kulwicki

During the sermon time, the young children are welcome to participate in "Sunday Stories" with Melissa Kulwicki and Jonathan Miller.

Leader: A reading from the book of the Genesis, the third chapter.

They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." The Lord God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this,
 cursed are you among all animals
 and among all wild creatures;
 upon your belly you shall go,
 and dust you shall eat
 all the days of your life.

I will put enmity between you and the woman,
 and between your offspring and hers;
 he will strike your head,
 and you will strike his heel."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

"O God of Every Nation"

arr. Michael Helman, 2021

THE EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Mr. Jenkins

Leader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians, the fourth chapter.

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 3:20-35

Rev. Ahrens

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Mark, the third chapter.

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

"Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"—for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Transition News

The Transition Team for First Congregational Church is holding small group discussions, called Listening Circles. This name describes the way members of the group build connections and equally share thoughts about the future ministry of the church. The first of these groups met last Thursday, with about 25 participants. It was exciting to hear the love for First Church and the desire to see its membership and ministry thrive.

A significant theme so far is the importance of communication from the Transition Team. As we continue, look for transition news in Connections newsletters and Sunday worship programs, on a dedicated bulletin board near the Gladden Chapel, as well as in emails and letters. Transition Team members Todd Cunningham, Jackie Dean, Scott Graham, Greg Halbe, Nancy Loy, Allison Lowery Palmer, Pavan Peter, Sarah Reed, Rev. Joanna Samuelson, and Joshua Stafford want to hear your concerns and dreams for First Church.

On Saturday, October 19, 2024, the congregation, friends, and family of Rev. Dr. Timothy Ahrens will gather to celebrate the ministries of First Church in the last twenty-five years. On October 20, Rev. Ahrens will lead worship for the last time as Senior Minister. Then he will take a month-long vacation, with his employment at First Congregational Church ending on November 21. The Transition Team plans for an Interim Minister to begin on December 1, 2024. The interim time is an important opportunity for the church to reflect on itself and listen for how the Spirit is guiding its ministry forward. We want to be faithful to this time of celebration and future planning.
