

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH,
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST,
COLUMBUS, OHIO

PREAMBLE

As a community of faith, the members of First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, Columbus, Ohio, are called to witness and serve, united by their acceptance of the following mutual covenant:

We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and with one another and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and the Holy Scripture.

We covenant with one another to worship, work, and serve God together so that we may express through our fellowship and our individual lives the love and faith taught by Jesus Christ.

In our commitment and desire to reach out and welcome all those in need of and searching for God's love, we believe that we are all created in God's image, female and male, and that we are called to love our neighbors as Jesus loves us. We believe we are many members, but one body in Christ, and called to unite all people in God's love. We welcome and affirm all people. We invite those who are seeking God's presence in their lives to join us on our common journey. Our faith community seeks to unite persons of all ages, races, nationalities, ethnicities, sexual orientations, mental and physical abilities, socioeconomic levels, and political and theological backgrounds. Together in our diversity, and being empowered and directed by the Holy Spirit, we will strive to "do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with our God" (Micah 6:8).

The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions.

In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments, Baptism and Holy Communion.
