

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE LESSON

Proverbs 9:1-6

Maggie Myers

Leader: A reading from the book of Proverbs, the ninth chapter.

Wisdom has built her house,
she has hewn her seven pillars.
She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine,
she has also set her table.
She has sent out her servant-girls, she calls
from the highest places in the town,
"You that are simple, turn in here!"
To those without sense she says,
"Come, eat of my bread
and drink of the wine I have mixed.
Lay aside immaturity, and live,
and walk in the way of insight."

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALTER

Psalms 34:9-14

Maggie Myers

The St. Helena Psalter

Fear the Most High, you that are God's saints, for those who fear God lack nothing.

The young lions lack and suffer hunger,
but those who seek God lack nothing that is good.

Come, children, and listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of God.

Who among you loves life
and desires long life to enjoy prosperity?

Keep your tongue from evil-speaking and your lips from lying words.

Turn from evil and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.

Leader: A reading from the Gospel according to Luke, the fifteenth chapter.

Then Jesus said, “There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the wealth that will belong to me.’ So he divided his assets between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant region, and there he squandered his wealth in dissolute living. When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that region, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that region, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave him anything. But when he came to his senses he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”’ So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate, for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate.

“Now his elder son was in the field, and as he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf because he has got him back safe and sound.’ Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, ‘Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command, yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!’ Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.’ ”

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

“A Parable of Madness”

Rev. Ahrens

Fourth in a six part sermon series entitled “Then and Now”

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rev. Samuelson

Leader: Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Transition News

The Transition Team has been at work developing a plan for the church's spiritual and pastoral care during the time between Rev. Tim's departure and the beginning of Interim leadership. At present, Rev. Joanna will be joined by clergy members of our congregation to lead worship and respond to pastoral care needs of membership and staff. Our Deacons and Stephen Ministers will continue to do what they do so well to support the spiritual life of the church. More details will be forthcoming as we approach October 20.

From our Listening Circles we are learning how much our members value the Social Justice and Music ministries of First Church. We also hear the concerns raised about rebuilding ministry to young families and youth, as well as strengthening congregational connections and care. The feedback from listening groups will provide a foundation for our journey forward. Please join us once, or often, to share your perspectives. Your voice is important!
