

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

CHILDREN'S TIME

Melissa Kulwicki

During the sermon time, the young children are welcome to participate in "Sunday Stories" with Melissa Kulwicki and Cami Curren.

Leader: A reading from the Book of Genesis, the nineteenth chapter.

The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground. He said, "Please, my lords, turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet; then you can rise early and go on your way." They said, "No; we will spend the night in the square." But he urged them strongly, so they turned aside to him and entered his house, and he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house, and they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may know them." Lot went out of the door to the men, shut the door after him, and said, "I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please; only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof." But they replied, "Stand back!" And they said, "This fellow came here as an alien, and he would play the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them." Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and came near the door to break it down. But the men inside reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them and shut the door. And they struck with blindness the men who were at the door of the house, both small and great, so that they were unable to find the door.

Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city—bring them out of the place. For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to destroy it." So Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, "Up, get out of this place, for the Lord is about to destroy the city." But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or else you will be consumed in the punishment of the city." But he lingered, so the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the Lord being merciful to him, and they brought him out and left him outside the city. When they had brought them outside, they said, "Flee for your life; do not look back or stop anywhere in the plain; flee to the hills, or else you will be consumed." And Lot said to them, "Oh, no, my lords; your servant has found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life, but I cannot flee to the hills, for fear the disaster will overtake me and I die. Look, that city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and my life will be saved!" He said to him, "Very well, I grant you this favor too and will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive there." Therefore the city was called Zoar. The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

Then the Lord rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the Lord out of heaven, and he overthrew those cities and all the plain and all the inhabitants of the cities and what grew on the ground. But Lot's wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

The eyes of God are upon the righteous,
and the ears of God are open to their cry.

The face of God is against those who do evil,
to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

The righteous cry, and God hears them
and delivers them from all their troubles.

God is near to the brokenhearted and will save those whose spirits are crushed.

Many are the troubles of the righteous,
but God will deliver them out of them all.

God will keep safe all their bones;
not one of them shall be broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked,
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.

O God, you will ransom the life of your servants,
and none will be punished who trust in you.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: A reading from the gospel according to John, the sixth chapter.

Jesus said, "Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever." He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?" But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, "Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father."

Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?" Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

Transition News

The Transition Team has been at work developing a plan for the church's spiritual and pastoral care during the time between Rev. Tim's departure and the beginning of Interim leadership. At present, Rev. Joanna will be joined by clergy members of our congregation to lead worship and respond to pastoral care needs of membership and staff. Our Deacons and Stephen Ministers will continue to do what they do so well to support the spiritual life of the church. More details will be forthcoming as we approach October 20.

From our Listening Circles we are learning how much our members value the Social Justice and Music ministries of First Church. We also hear the concerns raised about rebuilding ministry to young families and youth, as well as strengthening congregational connections and care. The feedback from listening groups will provide a foundation for our journey forward. Please join us once, or often, to share your perspectives. Your voice is important!

O Gender Queer: A Memoir

7 p.m. on Zoom

Come enjoy lively conversation and fellowship this September and October with the First Church Book Club.

On Wednesday, September 4, Mary Jacobson will lead a discussion of Our Missing Hearts by Celeste Ng. This is the story of the bond between a mother and child living in a fearful society.

Government overreach causes ordinary people to be jailed and children removed from their parents. Police violence, political protest, book banning, and discrimination thrive. What are the powers—and limitations—of words, of stories, of art, to create change in the world? What lessons and legacies do we pass on to our children? How do any of us survive a broken world with our hearts intact?

On Wednesday, October 2, Kathy Reed will lead a discussion of Gender Queer: A Memoir by nonbinary, queer author and illustrator Maia Kobabe. This 2019 graphic memoir recounts Kobabe's journey from adolescence to adulthood growing up non-gender-conforming, exploring gender identity and sexuality, ultimately identifying as being outside of the gender binary. The American Library Association ranked it as the most challenged/banned book in schools and public libraries in 2021, 2022, and 2023.

Questions? Want to receive book club emails? Please call Kathy Reed, 614-442-7742.
