

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God’s ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE LESSON Esther 7:1-6, 9-10; 9:20-22

Donna Vogt

Leader: A reading from the Book of Esther, the seventh and ninth chapters.

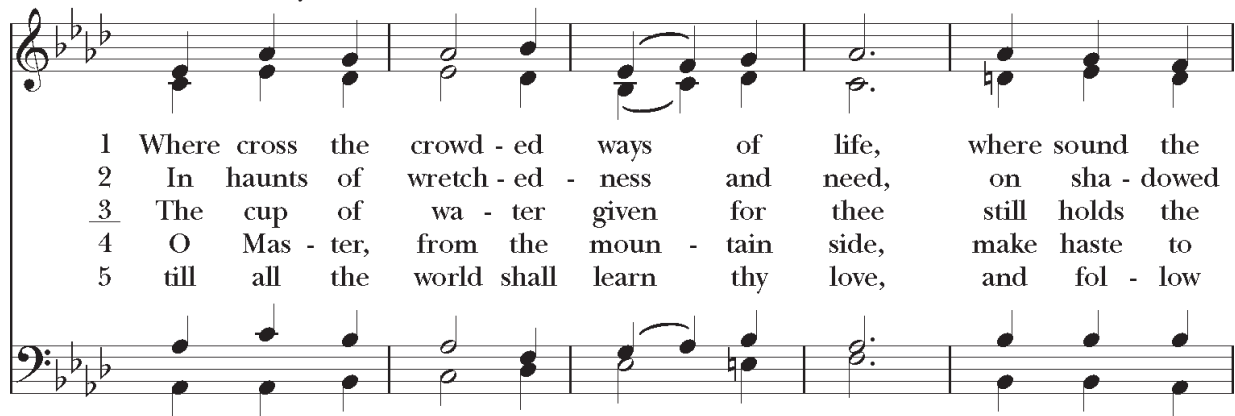

The king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther. On the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have won your favor, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me-- that is my petition-- and the lives of my people-- that is my request. For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; but no enemy can compensate for this damage to the king." Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who has presumed to do this?" Esther said, "A foe and enemy, this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.

Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, said, "Look, the very gallows that Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, stands at Haman's house, fifty cubits high." And the king said, "Hang him on that." So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated.

Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same month, year by year, as the days on which the Jews gained relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 9:38-50

Rev. Ahrens

Leader: A reading from the gospel according to Mark, the ninth chapter.

John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

"If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off;

it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

“For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

People: Thanks be to God.

Rev. Samuelson: O God, from living stones you prepare an everlasting dwelling-place for your majesty. Grant that in the power of the Holy Spirit those who serve you here may always be kept within your presence.

Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us:

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

David Hurd, 1993

“I was glad”

Psalm 122

I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the Lord.”
Now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is built as a city
that is at unity with itself;
To which the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
the assembly of Israel,
to praise the Name of the Lord.
For there are the thrones of judgment,
the thrones of the house of David.
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May they prosper who love you.
Peace be within your walls
and quietness within your towers.
For my brethren and companions' sake,
I pray for your prosperity.
Because of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek to do you good.”

ABOUT FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

WELCOME TO FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. As you can see and hear from the soaring Gothic Revival architecture, the stained glass windows, and the sound of music in this space, beauty is truly a multi-media encounter here.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICES are held at 9:00 a.m. (Morning Worship and Holy Communion, Parish Hall), 11:00 a.m. (Sanctuary), and 4:00 p.m. (Choral Evensong on the third Sunday of each month as announced). Following the Social Gospel tradition of Washington Gladden, senior minister of this church from 1882 to 1914, First Congregational Church welcomes all people and extends its mission and witness into the community.

AS A CONGREGATION OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST, we believe that God is Still Speaking in the world today. Our church has a distinctive voice as a people of welcome, justice and passion for the Gospel, shaped in expressions and traditions of the historic church.

THIS BUILDING was designed by renowned architect John Russell Pope, dedicated in 1931 and renovated in 1997.

THE BRUSSELS TAPESTRIES were woven in 1575 in Belgium, embodying the artistic ideals of the Renaissance. Part of a larger series, they depict events in the life of Abraham.

THE STAINED GLASS WINDOWS: Seven studios have placed their work in this church. Above the Chancel, the Jeffrey window, given in thanksgiving for the lives and generosity of J.A. and Celia Jeffrey (Nicola d'Ascenzo Studios, 1931), depicts Christ's earthly life and ministry, and the East Chancel window (Charles J. Connick Studios, 1937) honors Mary, the Mother of Jesus. The Friendship window (East wall, East Transept, Charles J. Connick Studios, 1931) represents Christ and Saint John, and in the South bay, two lancet windows portray the Good Samaritan (Connick Associates Studio, 1966), while the Gladden window (West wall, West Transept, Oliver Smith, 1931) honors the social justice witness of Washington Gladden, tracing Gladden's love of his alma mater, Williams College, and in the South bay, two lancet windows represent the Resurrection and the New Jerusalem (Gabriel Loire, built by Jacques Loire Vitraux, 1984). High above the Nave, the eight Clerestory windows (designed by Francis Deck, built by Emil Frei Studios, 1976–1983) depict the story of Creation, and the Fall of Adam and Eve. Below, the Aisle windows (Gabriel Loire, 1988) illustrate parables of Jesus from the Gospels. The Rose window (designed by Wilbert C. Ronan, built by Oliver Smith, 1931) above and behind the Beckerath organ case portrays Christian cardinal virtues. The Barnard window (Ellen Miret, the Willet Stained Glass Studio, 2004) in the East Narthex, which celebrates music, was inspired by Bach's Fantasia and Fugue in G minor and honors G. Dene Barnard, who served First Church as Organist/Choirmaster for 30 years. The Social Justice window (Ellen Miret, 2023), inspired by the writings of Howard Thurman, celebrates the social justice witness of generations of First Church members and friends.

THE BANNER STAND is rolled steel and made by Albert Paley, sculptor, in 2003.

THE COLLECTION OF LITURGICAL BANNERS is made by artist Deb Anderson.

THE CHANCEL CROSS is made of red enameled copper facets on Brazilian rosewood, by William J. Thompson, sculptor, in 1963.

THE GALLERY ORGAN was installed in 1972 by the firm of Rudolf von Beckerath, Hamburg, Germany, and is comprised of three manuals and 73 ranks of pipes.

THE CHANCEL ORGAN was installed in 1931 by the firm of W.W. Kimball, Chicago, and is comprised of four manuals and 66 ranks of pipes. It was restored in 2003 by the Peebles-Herzog firm of Columbus.

THE PIANO was built by Steinway in 1961 by Steinway & Sons and is a Model D concert grand. It was rebuilt by Benjamin Wiant and was gifted to the church in 2023.

THE HARPSICHORD is a two-manual French-style harpsichord, modeled after one by Pascal Taskin in 1769 and was built by member Ben Bechtel in 2008.

THE HANDBELLS are a five-octave set by Malmark and were acquired in 2024. The church also has a seven-octave set of Malmark Choirchimes.

THE WASHINGTON GLADDEN SOCIAL JUSTICE PARK, located at the corner of Broad Street and Cleveland Avenue, is the first park in the nation dedicated to the theme of social justice – bringing Columbus together to build the path to a better future through art, education, and constructive dialogue. The park is to be an oasis of hope where past achievements for social justice are recognized and current struggles are revealed. The park is open to all, regardless of beliefs and views, who are willing to offer open minds to seek understanding of diverse interests and values and to promote the common good. It is to be a safe haven for those feeling oppressed as well as a starting point for all to build the path to a better future. The park is dedicated to the memory of the Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, a Columbus community leader with a national following. Gladden was viewed as the father of the Social Gospel Movement in the early 1900s. Gladden was a staunch advocate for social justice in terms of civil rights, workers' rights, voting rights, religious pluralism, school integration, and the needs of the poor and oppressed. First Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, serves as a sponsor of the park, reflecting its commitment to social justice as a principle of its faith. As part of its commitment to support the community and serve others, the church has dedicated 18,000 square feet of its property for use by the Washington Gladden Social Justice Park, and has provided leadership and financial support for the park's development. For more information about the park and its work of social justice, please visit their website: www.socialjusticepark.org

Choral Evensong in Remembrance of G. Dene Barnard

We celebrate the life of our beloved Dene Barnard on Sunday, October 6, with a service of choral evensong. An extended prelude will be offered at 4:30 p.m., with Evensong following at 5 p.m.. Choir alumni will return to sing with the First Church Choir, and we welcome the return of Dene's successors Timothy Smith, Jamie Bobb, and Kevin Jones to play for the service. A reception follows in the Parish Hall where you will be welcome to share remembrances of Dene. To sing with the alumni choir, please contact Joshua Stafford, jstafford@first-church.org

Dene Barnard Items

In his lifetime, Dene Barnard amassed an impressive collection of books, vinyl records, CDs, travel guides, city & country maps, art work, organ music, and more. Much of it has been sorted and arranged in the basement room directly under the Fanning Room, across from the Adult Library. Please come and view it before and/or after services and take whatever you would like. Dene's treasures in this room will be available to you only until the end of October.

Transitions News

Twenty-five years ago, when First Congregational Church was searching for a new settled pastor, there were close to 150 applications to consider. It is not that way today. A generation of pastors are reaching retirement age and the number of people entering ministry as a vocation has dwindled significantly. Our transition team is experiencing the effects of this shift. The number of applicants for our interim ministry position is a small fraction of what it was when we sought an interim pastor 27 years ago. Given this situation, it is not likely that we will meet our goal to have an Interim in place on December 1st. Despite this challenge, we will not compromise our goal to hire the most qualified person as our interim spiritual leader. The good news is that Rev. Samuelson has assembled an excellent bridge team to lead the church in worship and congregational care. With their help, strong leadership, our love and care for one another, and the help of God, we will continue to thrive when Rev. Ahrens retires. Today, tomorrow and the tomorrow after that, together, we serve our God together!
