

WELCOME TO FIRST CHURCH!

If you are visiting today and looking for a church home, welcome! For more than 172 years, our Covenant has been: We covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and one another, and bind ourselves in the presence of God to live together in all God's ways as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit and holy scripture. The church acknowledges that all members have the right of individual interpretation of the principles of the Christian faith and respects them in their honest convictions. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord, the church recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion.

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Malachi 3:1-4

Katarina Cochrane-Yamaguchi and Henry

Leader: A reading from the book of the prophet Malachi, the third chapter.

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight-- indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Luke 1:68-79

Blest are you, O God of Israel;
 you have come to your people and set them free.

You have raised up for us a mighty Savior,
 born of the house of your servant David.

Through your holy prophets you promised of old,
 that you would save us from our enemies,
 from the hands of all who hate us.

You promised to show mercy to our forebears
 and to remember your holy covenant.

This was the oath you swore to Sarah and Abraham,
 to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship you without fear,
 holy and righteous before you all the days of our life.

And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High,
 for you will go before the Promised One to prepare the way,

To give all people knowledge of salvation,
 by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God,
 the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death,
 and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to God, Source of all being, Incarnate Word, and Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 3:1-6

Rev. Nirote

Leader: A reading from the gospel according to Luke, the third chapter.

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
 make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled,
 and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
 and the crooked shall be made straight,
 and the rough ways made smooth;
 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

Leader: The Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: Let us pray as Christ our Savior has taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

MISSION INVITATION

Jim Lowe

For over 40 years, Bethlehem On Broad Street (BOBS) has offered a warm haven for hundreds of our neighbors who are cold, hungry, or without companionship on Christmas Day. That means a hot, sit-down meal, joyous music, fellowship, spiritual support, referrals to help agencies, and gifts of winter wear, blankets, toiletries, and toys for kids. Without BOBS, many of our guests wouldn't have these necessities or experience these holiday joys. Through most of its history, Bethlehem On Broad Street has been hosted by First Congregational Church, with the partnership of many other churches and organizations, and the volunteer efforts of over 200 people annually. First Church members and others make this mission possible with your financial support, your volunteer time, your gifts of toys, and your donations of cooked turkeys, hams, breakfast treats, and desserts. And, when the day ends, Bethlehem On Broad Street continues, with the donation of all left over food and gifts to partner and ally agencies who serve people in the same circumstances as those who come to First Church on Christmas Day. BOBS and our guests are thankful for your help in any form, and for your prayers for our neighbors.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

“People, look east”

arr. Craig Phillips, 1995

Eleanor Farjeon, 1928

People, look east. The time is near
of the crowning of the year.
Make your house fair as you are able;
trim the hearth and set the table.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Guest, is on the way.

Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare,
one more seed is planted there.
Give up your strength the seed to nourish,
that in course the flower may flourish.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Rose, is on the way.

Birds, though you long have ceased to build,
guard the nest that must be filled.
Even the hour when wings are frozen
God for fledging time has chosen.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Bird, is on the way.

Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim
one more light the bowl shall brim,
shining beyond the frosty weather,
bright as sun and moon together.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Star, is on the way.

Angels, announce with shouts of mirth
Christ who brings new life to earth.
Set every peak and valley humming
with the word, the Lord is coming.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Lord, is on the way.

Volunteers help on the last Tuesday of the month and the hours are 5:15 p.m. until 7:15 p.m. If you are interested please join us on December 17 at Washland at 1469 W. Broad Street. Volunteering for Laundry Love is easy and very rewarding. Volunteers use a form to keep a tally of washers and dryers used. They put the detergent and fabric softener in the machines. The most important job is meeting and talking with the people who come in to do their laundry. The people we help are very appreciative and respectful to our volunteers. ## Transition News - Listening

A distinction can be made between listening to and listening for. Although it might happen accidentally, listening is always an intentional activity. It requires paying attention to what is said, as well as what is left unsaid. Through listening circles with members of First Church, the Transition Team has been listening to concerns and listening for the voice of the Spirit in what is being shared. This task has been both informative and important.

So far, we have learned of the overwhelming love that members have for the people and ministries of this church. We hear this through the affirmations for social justice ministry, music programs, growing congregational care, and hospitality. We also hear it in the expressions of concern for better communication from leadership, the desire to see more youth and families and more opportunities for them, the need for more people to accept positions of leadership, and the desire for connection and fellowship.

The Transition Team has much more to do to listen for where God is calling us. We continue to hold Listening Circles and prepare a congregational survey. We also look forward to Rev. Becky David's arrival in a couple of weeks to add her voice to our listening task.

Upcoming Transition Team Listening Circles
12/8, 10 a.m., Classroom D
